

December 2010

My name is Candace and I have had tinnitus for over 10 years. As each year passes it has intensified. This past year the constant high pitch ring was almost unbearable. I went online and found Hearing Solutions offering a possible relief to some of this suffering and it has. After an examination and some testing they recommended the Zen program. It has made the biggest difference in the quality of my life.